What is a Significant Investor Visa (Subclass 188)?

The Australian Government introduced the Significant Investor Visa (Subclass 188) (Visa) as a new pathway for migrant investors coming to Australia. The Visa came into effect on 24 November 2012. Applicants may be eligible for the Visa if they hold at least $5 million (AUD) in 'Complying Investments' for a minimum of four years. On 15 May 2015, the Australian Government announced that a new framework for 'Complying Investments' which was implemented from 1 July 2015.

What investments qualify as 'Complying Investments' under the new framework?

From 1 July 2015, Visa applicants must invest at least $5 million (AUD) over a four year period in 'Complying Investments', comprising each of the following three mandatory investments:

- 1. Venture Capital and Growth Private Equity Funds (VCPE) – At least $500,000 (AUD) in eligible Australian VCPEs investing in start-up and small private companies.
- 2. Funds investing in Emerging Companies – At least $1.5 million (AUD) invested through one or more eligible managed investment scheme(s) or listed investment company(ies) investing in eligible 'emerging companies'.
- 3. Balancing Investment – The balance of the minimum $5 million (AUD) in 'balancing investments' through one or more eligible managed investment scheme(s) or listed investment company(ies) investing in specific permitted investments.

Visa applicants may also change between Complying Investments provided they continue to meet the proportions outlined above and meet specified reinvestment requirements.
