PIMCO

Investment philosophy and style

PIMCO's fixed income philosophy revolves around the principle of diversification. That is, no single risk should dominate returns. By diversifying strategies, or relying on multiple sources of value, PIMCO seeks to generate a solid track record with a high degree of consistency. PIMCO seek to add value through the use of "top-down" strategies such as exposure to interest rates, duration, changing volatility, yield curve positioning and sector rotation. PIMCO also employs "bottom-up" strategies involving analysis and selection of specific securities. By combining perspectives from both the portfolio level and the security level, PIMCO have consistently added value over time with acceptable levels of portfolio risk.

Investment objective

The OnePath Diversified Fixed Interest Trust (the Fund) aims to provide income and achieve returns (before fees, charges and taxes) that exceed the UBS Composite Bond Index (0+Yr), over periods of three years or more.

Investment strategy and process

The fund is actively managed and invests predominantly in a diversified mix of Australian and international defensive assets.

In pursuing the fund's investment objective, PIMCO applies a wide range of diverse strategies including: Duration, Credit Analysis, Relative Value analysis, Sector Allocation and Rotation and security selection. PIMCO's investment strategy emphasises active decision making with a long-term focus and seeks to avoid extreme swings in Duration or Maturity with a view to create a steady stream of returns. Two key sources of returns include:

- Sector Allocation and Rotation; and
- 'Bottom up' Credit Analysis of individual bonds and issuers.

Asset allocation

Historically the allocation between various sectors of the bond market has been an important source of return in investment portfolios. PIMCO's sector allocation is driven by its economic overview which is determined by a combination of its long term (secular) outlook and short term (cyclical) outlook. The secular outlook focuses on economic fundamentals such as trends in productivity and interest rates over a 5 year period. The cyclical outlook fine tunes the secular outlook over a 1 year horizon.
