Privacy statement

In this section 'we', 'us' and 'our' refer to OnePath Custodians Pty Limited and other members of the IOOF Group. We collect your personal information (including health and other sensitive information) from you to manage and administer our products and services. We may need to disclose it to certain third parties. Without your personal information, we may not be able to process your application/contributions or provide you with the products or services you require.

We are committed to ensuring the confidentiality and security of your personal information. Our Privacy Policy details how we manage your personal information.

In order to issue and undertake the management and administration of our product issue and services, it may be necessary for us to disclose your personal information to certain third parties. Unless you consent to such disclosure we will not be able to consider the information you have provided and may not be able to provide you with the product or service you have requested.

Providing your information to others

The parties to whom we may routinely disclose your personal information (including health and other sensitive information) include:

- an organisation that assists us and/or us to detect and protect against consumer fraud
- organisations, including those in an alliance with us, to distribute, manage and administer our products and services, carry out business functions and undertake analytics activities
- organisations performing administration and compliance functions in relation to the products and services we provide
- organisations providing medical or other services for the purpose of the assessment of any insurance claim you make with us (such as reinsurers)
- our solicitors or legal representatives
- organisations maintaining our information technology systems
- organisations providing mailing and printing services
- persons who act on your behalf (such as your agent or financial adviser)
- regulatory bodies, government agencies, law enforcement bodies and courts.

We will also disclose your personal information in circumstances where we are required by law to do so. Examples of such laws are:

- The Family Law Act 1975 (Cth) enables certain persons to request information about your interest in a superannuation fund
- There are disclosure obligations to third parties under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006.

Information required by law

We may be required by relevant laws to collect certain information from you. Details of these laws and why they require us to collect this information are contained in our Privacy Policy at onepath.com.au/superandinvestments/privacy-policy

Overseas recipients

We may disclose information to recipients (including service providers and related companies) which are (1) located outside Australia and/or (2) not established in or do not carry on business in Australia. You can find details about the location of these recipients in our Privacy Policy at onepath.com.au/superandinvestments/privacy-policy

Marketing and privacy

We and other members of the IOOF Group may use your personal information (including health and other sensitive information) to send you information about our financial products or services from time to time.

We and IOOF may also disclose your personal information (including health and other sensitive information) to our related companies and organisations in an arrangement or alliance with us and/or IOOF to share information for marketing purposes. This is to enable them or IOOF to tell you about a product or service offered by them or a third party with whom they have an arrangement.

If you do not want us to use and disclose your information as set out above, phone Customer Services on 133 665 to withdraw your consent.

If you wish to authorise any other parties to act on your behalf, to receive information and/or undertake transactions, please notify us in writing.

Privacy policy

Our Privacy Policy contains information about:

- when we may collect information from a third party
- how you may access and seek correction of the personal information we hold about you
- how you can raise concerns that we have breached the Privacy Act or an applicable code and how we will deal with those matters.

You can contact us about your information or any other privacy matter as follows:
