Investment objective

The fund aims to achieve returns (before fees, charges and taxes) that magnify the S&P/ASX 300 Accumulation Index returns.

Investment strategy

The fund invests capital and borrowings in a diversified portfolio of Australian shares. The share portfolio comprises approximately 300 of the largest companies (shares) listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX). The fund will hold most of the securities in the S&P/ASX 300 Index (Index), allowing for individual security weightings to vary marginally from the Index from time to time.

Minimum time horizon

5 years

Standard Risk Measure*

The Standard Risk Measure (SRM) is based on industry guidance to allow investors to compare funds that are expected to deliver a similar number of negative annual returns over any 20 year period. The SRM for this fund is shown below:

Asset allocation

† Returns quoted use the unit price which is calculated using the net asset values for the relevant month end. The prices shown may differ from the actual unit price if an investor is applying for or redeeming an investment. Actual unit prices will be confirmed following any transaction on an investor's investment. Please note that all returns are after the deduction of management fees and expenses and assumes all distributions are re-invested. Where applicable, management fees have been deducted at the highest entry fee option rate. No allowance has been made for entry or exit fees.

31 March 2025

Market and portfolio review

Australian Equities declined in the March quarter. The market rose strongly in January, but then fell sharply from late February after the US announced new tariffs on China, Mexico and Canada. Martin Currie outperformed mostly due to positive stock selection in financials. Alphinity outperformed due to positive stock selection in materials, information technology and energy. Antares underperformed due to negative stock selection in financials, real estate and materials. Quest underperformed mostly due to negative stock selection in financials. Selector underperformed due to negative stock selection materials and from being overweight information technology and consumer discretionary. OC Small Caps underperformed both the Small Ords and the ASX 300. Underperformance vs the ASX 300 was primarily due to negative stock selection in financials and materials which was partially offset by positive AA from being underweight the materials sector
