Market and portfolio review

Global equity markets recorded negative returns for the quarter. Initially markets rose before posting steep falls in September as concerns about the strength of China's economy, inflation and the prospect of interest rates remaining higher for longer began to weigh on sentiment. Royal London outperformed due to positive stock selection in Financials and Energy. Pzena outperformed due to positive stock selection in Financials, Info Tech and Consumer Discretionary. Alphinity underperformed due to negative stock selection in Info Tech and Health Care. Brown Advisory underperformed due to negative stock selection in Health Care and Financials.

Future investment strategy

Market participation broadened over the course of the quarter, suggesting expectations for an economic re-acceleration later this year. Monetary policy continues to have an outsized impact on markets. Market swings this quarter were largely driven by changing expectations for Fed policy this year.
