Investment objective

The fund aims to achieve returns (before fees, charges and taxes) that magnify the S&P/ASX 300 Accumulation Index returns.

Investment strategy

The fund invests capital and borrowings in a diversified portfolio of Australian shares. The share portfolio comprises approximately 300 of the largest companies (shares) listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX). The fund will hold most of the securities in the S&P/ASX 300 Index (Index), allowing for individual security weightings to vary marginally from the Index from time to time.

Minimum time horizon

5 years

Standard Risk Measure*

The Standard Risk Measure (SRM) is based on industry guidance to allow investors to compare funds that are expected to deliver a similar number of negative annual returns over any 20 year period. The SRM for this fund is shown below:

Market and portfolio review

Australian shares delivered a negative return for the quarter, as strong performance in the materials sector was more than offset by declines in the information technology, consumer discretionary, health care, and communication services sectors. Acorn outperformed during the period due to positive stock selection in the materials and healthcare, and from being overweight materials. OC Mico Cap outperformed mostly due to positive stock selection in materials. Quest outperformed mostly due to positive stock selection in healthcare and industrials and from being overweight industrials. Selector underperformed due to being overweight healthcare, communication services and information technology and underweight materials. Northcape underperformed due to negative stock selection in financials and materials and from being underweight the materials sector. Antares underperformed due to negative stock selection in information technology, materials and industrials and from being overweight information technology and underweight materials. OC Mid Cap underperformed due to being overweight information technology and negative stock selection in financials.
