Market and portfolio review

Global equity markets recorded positive returns in the December quarter, with a broader participation in gains as investors rotated out of mega-cap technology and into cyclical and defensive stocks. Lifecycle outperformed due to positive stock selection in industrials, consumer staples, consumer discretionary and communication services, and overweight to materials. Pzena outperformed mainly from positive stock selection in IT. The OptiMix Emerging Markets cross investment outperformed its benchmark and significantly outperformed the MSCI ACWI Ex Aus index, driven by strong performance of TT International and Intrinsic Alphinity underperformed due to negative stock selection in IT, communication services and consumer discretionary. Arrowstreet underperformed due to negative stock selection in communication services and healthcare. Brown Advisory underperformed from negative stock selection in IT and consumer discretionary

Future investment strategy

The Trust generally gains its investment exposure by investing in a well-diversified portfolio of international share investment managers. The Trust's investments generally provide exposure to stocks within the MSCI All Country World ex Australia Index ($A). However, the Trust has the capacity to gain exposure to shares outside the index, such as emerging markets and unlisted shares. The Trust aims to be fully invested at all times with cash exposure not exceeding 10% for any length of time. The Trust is authorised to utilise approved derivative instruments subject to the specific restriction that derivative instruments cannot be used to gear the portfolio exposure. The underlying managers may utilise strategies for the management of currency exposure. It is the strategy of the Trust that part of the international currency exposure may be hedged. The Trust has the capacity to apply currency overlay to manage currency risk.
