Market and portfolio review

The Fund outperformed the index over the March quarter by 2%. Outperformance was predominantly driven by SG Hiscock, whilst relative value manager Renaissance also outperformed. The Fund is positioned towards AREITs with funds management earnings streams perceived to be geared towards an improving recovery. Such names are the few that are able to provide earnings and distribution guidance for FY22. The main contributors to performance were the overweight to Unibail which outperformed as global yields increased. The other overweights to add were the Australian mall owners Scentre and Vicinity which fell less than the market in a volatile quarter.

Future investment strategy

The S&P/ASX 300 Property Accumulation Index returned a very strong 19.2% for the year, with the market continuing to rebound. The Fund underperformed over 12 months to the end of March 2022. Overweight Scentre Group and Unibail-Rodamco-Westfield had the greatest contribution to performance, while underweight positions in Goodman and Dexs helped given lofty valuations.
