To provide stable returns over the medium term by investing in a diversified portfolio of mostly defensive assets with some growth asset exposure and to achieve total returns after fees in excess of the benchmark over a rolling three-year period.

Investment strategy

The fund gains its exposure to a diversified portfolio of investments through a mix of investment managers. The conservative nature of the fund provides a greater exposure to defensive assets, such as fixed interest and cash with a moderate exposure to growth assets, such as property, Australian and international shares and alternative assets. A mix of passive, factor-based and active investment managers may be selected to manage the assets of the fund providing differing yet complementary investment styles to achieve more consistent excess returns. The fund is authorised to utilise approved derivative instruments for risk management purposes and investment efficiency. Please note that derivative instruments cannot be used to gear the fund's exposure. The underlying managers may utilise strategies for the management of currency exposure. It is the strategy of the fund that international currency exposure may be hedged. The fund has the capacity to change the level and nature of any currency overlay or allocation to underlying managers to manage currency risk.

Market and portfolio review

US share prices briefly made new historic highs in December, with the support of the US central bank cutting interest rates by 0.25%, expensive share valuations then served to caution investors. US economic data is a mix of positives and negatives with solid consumer spending and modest employment gains tempered by the unemployment rate rising to a 4 year high of 4.6%. There was more encouraging news with US consumer annual inflation moderating from 3% in September to 2.7% in November.

European shares made strong gains with business surveys showing solid economic growth prospects and inflation proving stable at around 2%.

Chinese shares edged lower as subdued retail spending and the weak residential property market remaining key concerns.

Australian Shares made mild gains. The Resources sector delivered a strong 5.8% return on the back of rising gold and metal prices. Financial sector shares including the banks also performed strongly with a 3.4% gain. However, sharp declines in Information Technology (-8.1%) and Health Care (-7.0%) proved to be major headwinds to the broader Australian share market. The Consumer Discretionary sector was also disappointing with a negative 2.7% return as hopes for lower interest rates evaporated.

Australia's economic data also provided mixed results with stronger consumer spending but weaker employment in November. Given headline annual inflation was higher than expected at 3.8% in October, financial markets are contemplating that the Reserve Bank could raise interest rates in 2026.

Future investment strategy
